Form 990, Part III, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

MPC's 86 grantmaker members include 75% of the largest grantmaking foundations in the state that awarded over $50 million to support a broad range of Maine nonprofit organizations. Members include family and private independent foundations, community and other public charity foundations and corporate giving programs. MPC also has 290 associate members including nonprofit organizations, professional advisors and consultants.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

MPC offers grantwriting and foundation research programs with the Maine Association of Nonprofits to build nonprofits' skills to effectively seek and utilize philanthropic dollars. Other programs are offered that help nonprofits enhance their grantseeking skills such as the biennial Philanthropy Partners Conference and Meet the Funders to build a bridge between grantmakers and grantseekers and ultimately strengthen the nonprofit sector. The two-day Philanthropy Partners Conference held in 2010 attracted over 450 grantmakers, nonprofits and government representatives.

The Maine Philanthropy Center promotes broad public awareness of philanthropy in a variety of ways including the publication of an annual giving report, the Directory of Maine Grantmakers and a public website with local and national data about charitable foundations. MPC maintains on-site library resources including public access to the most complete, searchable national database of foundations. On average, 29 individuals representing nonprofit organizations visited the MPC library monthly in 2010 to research foundation information. A typical visitor in 2010 spent 2-3 hours conducting foundation research following a staff-led tutorial session. During the same time period, MPC members were able to access the Online Directory of Maine Grantmakers, a database of over 400 funders that are active in Maine. MPC's online directory represents the largest percentage of traffic on the MPC website after the home page.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 6: The Organization offers two categories of membership: Grantmaker Members and Associate members. Grantmaker Members include organizations that make grants to nonprofit organizations in Maine including private foundations, community foundations, corporate foundations/giving programs or public charity grantmakers. Associate members include nonprofit organizations, consultants and professional advisors. Both groups receive the benefits of membership including access to programs and online resources.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11: The finance and budget committee reviews the first draft of the 990 and recommends any changes if necessary. A second draft that includes these modifications is circulated to the full board for review. Once approved by the full board, the board chair signs the final copy and submits it to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c: At every September board meeting - the first meeting to follow the annual meeting where new directors are elected - all board, committee & staff members complete or update a conflict of interest disclosure statement. In addition to the written disclosure statement, any director, committee member or staff with a possible conflict on any matter under consideration by MPC is asked to disclose that situation at meetings and cannot vote on the matter. These actions are reflected in the minutes.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15: The Organization strives to provide compensation that recognizes, motivates and rewards staff for their accomplishments and commitment to the Organization's mission. The board of directors is responsible for the annual performance evaluation of the president and consults local and national salary reports to set appropriate compensation.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The Organization posts the latest 990 on the website and indicates that other financial information and governance policies are available upon request.
