

Justice for Women Lecture Series

PRESENTS

A Conversation on Equitable Access to Public Health Resources

with Maine CDC ■ Maine Community Integration
Wabanaki Public Health ■ Maine Health Access Foundation

Wednesday, April 27 ■ 12:00 - 1:30 pm via Zoom

WITH SPECIAL GUEST

Susan Kasedde

Country Director for UNAIDS in the Democratic Republic of Congo

Join us to learn from the leaders about pandemics and their impacts on vulnerable communities. What lessons have we learned from the AIDS pandemic that can help us deal with COVID? How do we protect our BIPOC communities, address stigmas, educate our population?

Register here for this event

HEAR FROM:

Ian Jaffe, Maine CDC, Office of Population Health Equity

Lisa Sockabasin, ED, Wabanaki
Public Health, Bangor

Fowsia Musse, Maine Community
Integration, Lewiston

Barbara Leonard, President & CEO,
Maine Health Access Foundation
moderating

Also, join us on Monday, April 25 for the 2022 Annual Justice for Women Lecture with Winne Byanyima, Executive Director of UNAIDS and Under-Secretary-General of the United Nations.

Monday, April 25, 12:00 to 1:30 via Zoom.

Register here for this lecture

MAINE
UNIVERSITY OF MAINE SCHOOL OF LAW
LAW