

How You Can Help Storm Response in the wake of disaster

Many have asked “how can I help?” following the destructive storms and flooding on January 10 and 13. We’ve included mailing addresses for sending a check and website addresses for online giving. As we learn more from individuals, businesses and communities affected by the storms, we will update this list of nonprofit organizations.

Island Institute

PO Box 648, Rockland, ME 04841

We will be increasing the number and use of our Business Resilience Grants, offering both financial and expert resources to the waterfront businesses who employ and support thousands of people in our state.
